

For the Southern District of Georgia

Position Vacancy Announcement

Law Clerk to the Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge

Closing Date: September 20, 2004

Duty Station: Savannah, Georgia

Qualifications: To qualify for the position of law clerk to a federal judge a person must be a law school graduate as of the date of entry of service. Law Review, or other substantial research, writing or editorial experience is desired but not mandatory.

Term of Employment: August 2005 through July 2007.

General Job Description: The law clerk will be required to do legal research, draft memoranda and opinions, counsel with the judge and members of staff on legal matters affecting the administration of bankruptcy laws, and perform other duties as prescribed by the judge and staff. Some of the law clerk's time will be spent in the courtroom observing proceedings and performing other courtroom duties. Travel to other divisions located within the Southern District of Georgia may be necessary, depending upon the caseload.

Starting Salary: $48,947.00 (subject to adjustment). This position falls within the Judicial Salary Plan of the United States Judiciary and is therefore outside the scope of Civil Service; salary and other benefits compare to those for employees of Civil Service.

Applications: Submit completed application (inclusion of a résumé is optional) to:

Lamar W. Davis, Jr.
Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge
Southern District of Georgia
United States Courthouse, 125 Bull Street
Post Office Box 9714
Savannah, Georgia 31412

THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER.